Free

"Sort of" Swords

JASON TAFFET, CABIN F
Camp has many things to do during free time. I signed up for the sword making so I do that in the afternoon with my friend. We do one step every free time, so it takes about 20 minutes. On Monday, we first picked out our sword and hand guard. We used a metal file to get the sword to fit through the hole in the hand guard. Also, we used an extremely sharp handsaw to cut shoulders into the sword so the hand guard fit nicely. That was the first step. Today we might not do the woodworking because of the rain. Now, we have to do different steps tomorrow. Let's hope we all finish our wooden swords in time!

Phrisbee Phreaks

DOMINIC STOLLE, CABIN E
It was a tough game of ultimate frisbee between cabins E and G. The game started with cabin E in possession. They passed but dropped it and cabin G got the frisbee. They passed back and forth and quickly advanced up the field. Then they passed the frisbee into the end zone and scored. The game continued with G doing very well. Their passing was good and they quickly scored two more points. At the end of the first half cabin E was trailing 3 to 5. After half-time though, cabin E began to catch up. They scored two more points and tied the game. Finally cabin E scored two more points and took the lead. Then cabin G scored another point, but before they could score again the game ended.

Zippity Do Dah

MICHAEL SIMMONS, CABIN A
In Cabin A, American Armada, we went to go to the zip line and the rock wall. I came here to LCT last year too, but the ones there were both higher, and the zip line was longer. When I was sitting on the edge, it felt like the harness was pulling me off the 60-ft high ledge. But when I actually went off the ledge, it wasn't scary at all, just really thrilling. The four people who went on the ride got to fling over a pit that was about 20 feet deep. If you don't go on it, you, my friend, sorry to say, have never experienced anything like it.

Today's Forecast

Scattered Thunderstorms with a 60% chance of rain.
High: 81° Low: 72°

The Space Shuttle Discovery successfully launches yesterday at 2:38 p.m. EST. There were no reported problems with the foam on the external tank.

Gators eat Homiez and Emus

RYAN LEGRAND, CABIN G
We're not the Florida Gators, we're the Gruesome Gators. In knockout the Gators defeated the Homiez in two games. Then we went and played and won in two more games against the Emus. In the third game, one of our players, Zach Dennis, was the only Gator left in line against 4 Emus. After a little while Zack, being a true Gator, overcame all 4 of the Emus and won the game. The Emus found out what happens when you mess with the Gruesome Gators.

Toad Rhymes with...?

STEVEN BECK, CABIN A

There's a big green toad in the middle of the road, and I looked at it. Its epidermis (skin) made it look like a monkey that was trying to unload. But I could not quite crack the code. It was run over by a truck that came by but it was eaten up. Like a frog that eats a fly, its last soccer game ended in a tie, and all the soccer players said goodbye.

Italy Defeats Germany

DORTMUND, GERMANY

The German World Cup team lost to Italy 2-0. Italy now advances to the World Cup Soccer finals, to play the winner of today's match between Portugal and France.

came in minute 119. The German team pressed desperately to score, but Italy put the ball in the net again just before the whistle was blown, ending Germany's dream of winning the World Cup at home.

The first Italian goal

CTF @ LCT

GREGORY BECK, CABIN E

Monday night Camp had a big game of "Capture the Flag" with two teams. Cabins E and G were on one team, and F and H were on the other. It was very dark outside so it was very hard to see the other flag. We had two games and they both lasted a while. In the first game I was playing defense and I snuck up on a bunch of people out in "no man's land" and tagged as many people as possible, but in the end John Paul of cabin H ran off easily with the flag. For the second game, we switched fields and we got head lights, so it was easier to see. I only got one or two people out, but other people got a lot more. In the end Matt West of cabin E set a diversion for Pepe, also of cabin E, by freeing jail. Then Pepe got the flag and made it back. So in the end it was 1-1 tie.

Night is for Games

ANDREW YOUNG, CABIN G

LCT is the best camp I've ever gone to! We play so many games, especially the night game! The night games we engage in are like battlefields for warriors. For example, on Monday night there was a furious game of Capture the Flag. John Paul of Cabin H got the first flag, and out of nowhere Pepe in Cabin E steals their flag! The game ended in a tie, 1-1. It was awesome! Hopefully we have more night games to play.
