Application Procedure

Submit this application & essay. As you study Brideshead Revisited, look for three major themes: friendship, journey to manhood, and individualism vs. community. Choose one theme and exam how it develops through the film and what are the universals relevant to us. Details: The essay should be at least 1000 words using MLA format. If you have questions about the format, I recommend the following website: <http://owl.english.purdue.edu/owl/resource/747/01/> or google: purdue online writing lab.

A strong candidate to junior counselor would typically meet the following requirements.

- Submit this application form by March 15, 2010 (keep copy)
- Participate in the Brideshead Revisited seminar @ Swift (Spring 2010)
- Submit essay by June 1, 2010
- Attend the Counselor Workshop: June 1-4, 2010 (if accepted as a counselor)

The Directors of LCT reserve the right to accept or deny any candidate without further justification.
